

INNSWORTH
JUNIOR SCHOOL

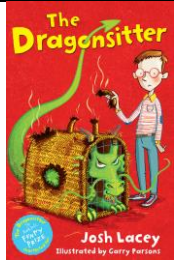

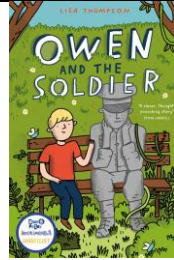

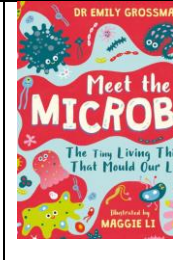

Y3/4 WCR TEXTS AND VOCABULARY (CYCLE 1)

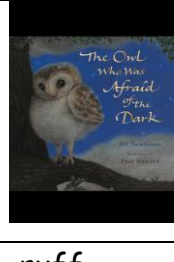

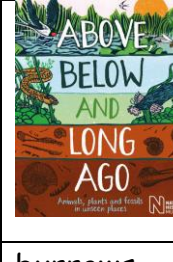

Day1: fluency and retrieval questions

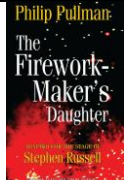

Day 2: prosody and accuracy and inference, summary and explanation discussion questions

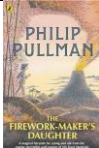

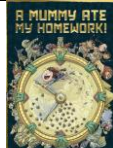

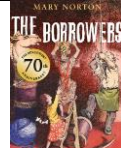

Day 3: independent questions

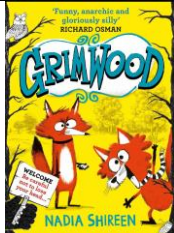

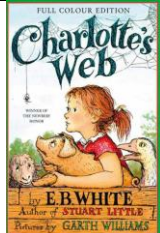

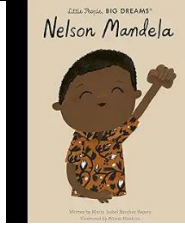

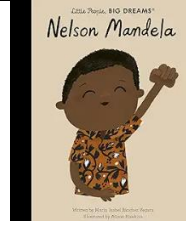

If the text is short, spend time working on prosody and accuracy

Autumn 1						The Sound Collector by Roger McGough
Vocab	subject urgent attachments	bubble up stunt man shortcut stuntman	murmured globes of grease device defy looming	lambchop favour of bulletin heavens	microscope one billion one hundred million	stranger gurgle swishing

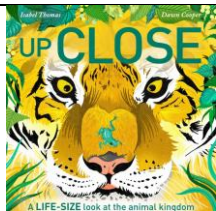

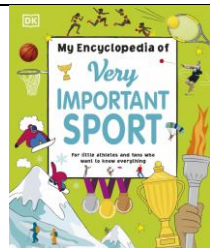

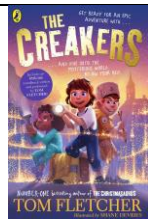

Autumn 2 (and reading assessment)						Be Glad Your Nose is on Your Face by John Prelutsky
Vocab	attempting oozing	ruff knackety knees patience	human sacrifice in honour feathered headdress	burrows vanish blending fossils multi-tasking folklore	mischievous turnip	pasted dislike precious sandwiched atop catastrophe obliged

Spring 1		Buckingham Palace by A A Milne
Vocab	cliff headlamps infra-red snag	guards sentry box	patron saint interval precisely	distinct aroma bouquet gravest	chemicals delicate fuse rudimentary	Academy Turrets Gymslips Sashes Laboratory New-fangled

Spring 2 (and reading assessment)	Jim by Hilaire Belloc
Vocab	tricycles fate nurses foible	reed banks marsh road otter writhing peculiar	cradle gunpowder somersault	strategy track star relentless	Card trading Aligned Feral Apocalypse	self-willed crochet hastily

Summer 1	Tummy Beast (Roald Dahl)
----------	--------------------------	---	--	---	---	---

vocab	swear throughout demanding asinine stirred	boldest mooch snuffle alert reedy (little voice)	sheer striding resplendent colosseum chariot	axe hoghouse runt pitcher sopping	clan formal (education) inherited inhabitants equal rights apartheid (stop reading before he is in prison)	overthrow racist Nobel Peace Prize rainbow nation
-------	--	---	--	---	---	---

Summer 2 (and reading assessment)					The Owl and the Pussy Cat (Edward Lear)
Vocab	curious sense (the world) adapted vertical predators	bag (a whole table) frantically rickety horrified	vanquishing dweller mighty (sword) vintage exquisite	tournament simplicity professional legend equipment	pea-green fowl tarried shilling quince runcible	silhouettes eerie courage