

INNSWORTH
JUNIOR SCHOOL

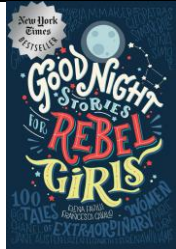

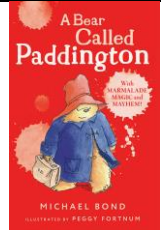

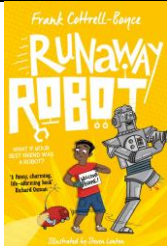

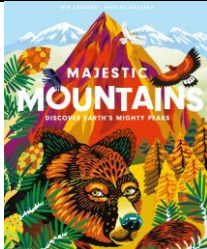

Y5/6 WCR TEXTS AND VOCABULARY (CYCLE 1)

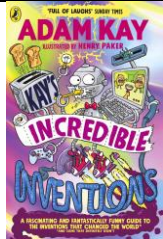

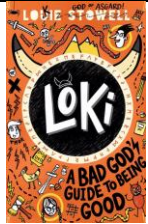

Day1: fluency and retrieval questions

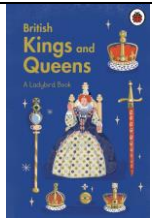

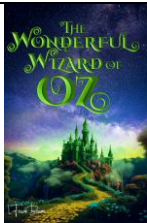

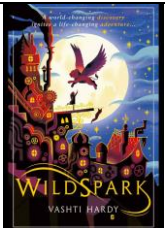

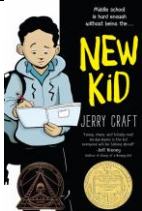

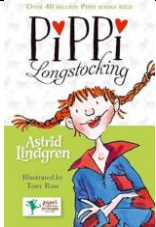

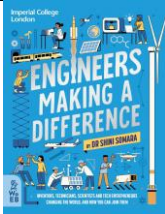

Day 2: prosody and accuracy and inference, summary and explanation discussion questions

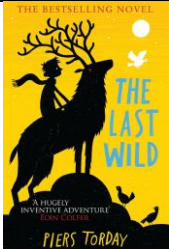

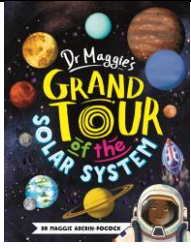

Day 3: independent questions

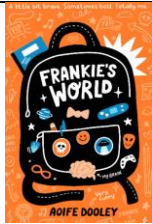

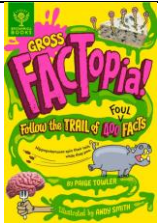

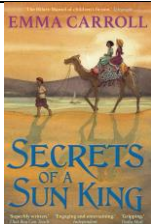

If the text is short, spend time working on prosody and accuracy.

Autumn 1			The Walrus and the Carpenter by Lewis Carroll
Vocab	rebel soar ball foraged persisted	blaring triumphantly peered brim inquiringly	billows beseech briny conveniently	bionic limb put-downs controversial retrace	locals spectacular sacred citadel summit couple that lichen	rumors confirmed infinite impression

Autumn 2 (and reading assessment)				Tyger by William Blake
Vocab	togas moat	oblivious wheeled departure concoctions aligning	banished spring into being appalled indignity puny disembodied	immortal fearful thine dread anvil clasp	rang out flinched pilfered squinting shawl lingered	covetous gait rime entreaty gladsome

Spring 1				Jabberwocky Lewis Carroll
Vocab	tail-spin groped floundering renowned stickler	pigsty optical illusion supper indignant	government abdication unquestionable wielded ceremonial figurehead heir	lots of made up words, you may need to discuss them to understand the poem!	severe jar greensward prairies queerest pleats bondage	furrows furlongs time-worn perched wrench (+ made up words!)
Spring 2 (and reading assessment)			Eldorado by Edgar Allen Poe

Summer 1		Silver by Walter De La Mere
Vocab	tinted warden quarantine academy varmint gleaming	shoon casements thatch couched cote	neon kaleidoscope (of colour) skirt around revolving sleek concentric	average embark equivalent theory neighbouring official	rakish (looking craft) tailors lagoon deftly resemblance coracles delectable	ancestors resided humanity benevolent harmoniously wielding gourds

Summer 2 (and reading assessment)	The British by Benjamin Zephania
Vocab	melting pot unity justice	principal journal	tea-chests demolition site mind's eye plywood	foul aphids repulsive clogged mucus	dreading horoscopes unravelling sloping dripping lav paper	coined traumatic distinguishing filching charisma serpent